Latest accounts from Utica state that the excitement there increases as McLeod's trial approaches, and that should he be acquitted, there will not be bay onets enough at the command of the State or General Government to protect him. There is said to be a band to see the country for whose liberties he had of desperate men-probably Canadian refugees-who have bound themselves by the most borrid oaths not to permit McLeod to return to Canada alive.

A letter in the Boston Atlas, dated, St. Albans, Sept. 23, gives the following account of a high handed step by the Canadians:

It appears from depositions taken in the case before the proper authorities, that the 15th St. Charles Street, NEW-ORLEANS. dwelling house of Wm. Brown, of Alburgh, was broken open and entered by a gang of armed men, in the uniform of British soldiers, about three o'clock on the morning of the 20th Sept.; that said Wm. Brown was awakened from his sleep by a noisy rush of men into a bed room adjoining the room May, 1842, at the Court House in the town of where he and his wife were sleeping; that Hernando, the following property, to wit: said Brown, calling to his sons and giving the alarm, was met at the door of his room by a 5 r. 7 west; six hundred shares of stock in the man armed with a gun and bayonet, who Hernando Rail Road and Banking Company threatened to shoot him if he made the least noise; that the remainder of the party, con- balance being paid in money. The publishers of the Brother Jona: han, encouraged by the abundant and unprecedented success which has crowned their recent efforts in the publication of tee "Dellar Magazine," have decided upon the publication of a Weekly sheet, expressly for the country, in a convenient form for preservation, under the title of "Jonathan's Miscellany.

The Miscellany will be issued every Tuesday morning, in a suitable form for binding, and will contain eight large quarto pages, printed with a beautiful and clear type; on a sheet of twenty-eight by thirty-eight inches. Its columns will be made no principally of such matter as appears in the tuni y is now afforded to do so by subscribing to the two publications, fonathan's Miscellany, and the Dollar Magazine.

SERIAL WORKS .- The plan of the Dollar Magaxine excludes the serial works which are published in the Brother Jonathan. The Miscellany will contain such new works from the perf of "Boz" 'Harry Lorrequer," and others, as may hereafter be commenced in the columns of the Brother Jonabeen previously published in the Brother Jonathan or any other periodical in this country.

Jonathan's Miscellany will also embrace the cream of the news, the latest and most important having the preference. It will be published on Tue-day's, and will thus anticipat the the Saturday papers of the same week several days. In this circums ance the publishers anticipate the creation of a large mail demand for the Miscellany, among readers who are at present provided with one or more of the Weekly Sh-ets which are , almost universally issued on Saturdays.
